2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 2, 5, 20, 21, and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Griesinger.

Griesinger discloses a system for processing a stereo input signal which includes center information, matrix encoded surround information, and the stereo information, the system comprising: first circuit for providing a center output which includes center monaural information (output of 162 of fig. 4); second circuit for providing a surround output from the matrix encoded surround information which includes surround monaural information (output of 166 and 168); third circuit for providing an expanded stereo output (output of 160 and 164); wherein the first circuit, the second circuit, and the third circuit process the stereo input signal to produce first and second output signals (output of 44 and 46 of fig. 7); and a first summer which combines one channel of the stereo input signal with the other channel of the stereo input signal to form a center combined signal which has the surround information removed (162).

4. Claims 3-4, 6-8, 13-14, 17-18, 22-23, 25-27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claims 39 to 40 are allowable over prior art of record.
